THE WEEK

Just a little different

CLASSICAL MUSIC|New and experimental music remains a difficult-to-find commodity in Denver. That's what makes the Experimental Playground Ensemble, in residence at the University of Denver, such a valuable asset. This week, the group performs works by such contemporary notables as Morton Feldman and Alfred Schnittke as well as local composer Conrad Kehn. |7:30 p.m. Thursday|Hamilton Recital Hall, Newman Center for the Performing Arts, 2344 E. Iliff Ave.; $14 and $16 general public and free for students; 303-871-6412 or du.edu/lamont.
